

Consumer quiz

World AMR Awareness Week 2025

Question	T / F
1. Antimicrobial resistance can make future infections harder to treat.	T / F
2. Overuse of antibiotics is a major driver of antibiotic resistance.	T / F
3. Hand hygiene has no effect on reducing the spread of resistant bacteria.	T / F
4. Resistant bacteria can spread between humans, animals and the environment.	T / F
5. The health system contributes to greenhouse gas emissions.	T / F
6. Viral infections respond well to antibiotics.	T / F
7. Taking an antibiotic can have side effects such as nausea and diarrhoea.	T / F
8. If your family member has the same symptoms as you, you can share your antibiotics with them.	T / F
9. Australia is estimated to have consistently high antimicrobial prescribing rates compared to European countries, England and Scotland.	T / F
10. Preventing and controlling the spread of antimicrobial resistance is everyone's responsibility.	T / F

For more information

Please visit: safetyandquality.gov.au/AMS

© Australian Commission on Safety and Quality in Health Care 2025